

3rd ILLA FOCUS CONFERENCE ON FORENSIC LINGUISTICS

PROGRAMME

6 September (The conference bus leaves from Meliá Hotel to UA at 7h45)

8h30	CONFERENCE BUILDING (Building 36): Germán Bernácer Registration
9h-9h30	CONFERENCE ROOM 1 (Building 36): Salón Germán Bernácer Opening  Prof. Dr. Rosa María Martínez Espinosa, Vice-President of International Relations, University of Alicante  Ms. Cristina Sirvent Alonso, President of the Association of Young Lawyers (AJA)  Prof. Dr. Dieter Stein (Heinrich-Heine Universität, Düsseldorf)
10h-12h	CONFERENCE ROOM 1 (Building 36): SALÓN GERMÁN BERNÁCER Chair: Dieter Stein (Heinrich-Heine Universität Düsseldorf) -Eilika Fobbe (Forensic Institute of the Federal Criminal Police Office in Wiesbaden), Pragmatics and Authorship Analysis -Trang Lam (CY Cergy Paris University), Jérémy Demange (CY Cergy Paris University) & Julien Longhi (CY Cergy Paris University), Deep Learning Approach to Authorship Attribution	CONFERENCE ROOM 2 (Building 38): SALÓN ALFREDO ORTS Chair: Magdalena Szczyrbak (Jagiellonian University) -Dámaso Izquierdo-Alegría (University of Navarra), Transferring Expertise on Epistemic Modality, Evidentiality and Related Notions to Defamation: A Case Study -Joy Steigler (WWU Graduate School for Empirical and Applied Linguistics), Language Prestige and Credibility Attribution: On the Effect of Linguistic Features on the Evaluation of Written Witness Statements

	-Pedro Castillo Mollá (University of Alicante), Identification of Spanish Speakers Feigning a Russian Accent by Palatisation of /t/. New Perspectives for the Analysis of Voice Quality -Awni Etaywe (University of Sydney), Evaluative Textbites as Evidence of Discourse Functions of Terrorist Communicated Threats: When “Care” is a Moral Foundation (Video) -Hans van Halteren (Radboud University), Text Type Independence of Distinguishing Author Features (Video)	-Victoria Guillén-Nieto (University of Alicante), Grice’s Cooperative Principle as a Linguistic Tool for Statement Veracity Assessment: A Tale of two Minor Girls Claiming Sexual Abuse -Luna Filipović (University of East Anglia), Interpreting Challenges in the Context of Police Interviews -Alberto Hijazo-Gascón (University of East Anglia), Cross-linguistic Challenges in Interpreted Mediated Police Interviews
12h-13h30	Conference Building (Building 36): Germán Bernácer Lunch break
13h30-15h30	CONFERENCE ROOM 1(Building 36): SALÓN GERMÁN BERNÁCER Chair: Dieter Stein (Heinrich-Heine Universität Düsseldorf) -Adriana Maria Korasidi (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens), George Mikros (University of Athens) &amp; Katerina Frantzi (University of Aegean), Emotion and Ideology in Terrorist Language: A Case of Four Violent Greek Groups -Patrizia Anesa (University of Bergamo), Linguistic Approaches to Online Crimes -Elena Morandini (University of Alicante), Mafia Language Analysis and Detection Using Computational Linguistic Tools -Yenny Eliana Sotomayor Marcelo (University of Alicante), A Linguistic Approach to the Analysis of Likelihood of Confusion in Trade Marks Including Personal Names (Video)	CONFERENCE ROOM 2 (Building 38): SALÓN ALFREDO ORTS Chair: Victoria Guillén-Nieto (University of Alicante) -Magdalena Szczyrbak (Jagiellonian University), The Voice of Law and the Voice of Medicine Confronted: Interactional Strategies in Expert Witness Cross-Examination -Robert Leonard (Hofstra University), Hofstra University’s Forensic Linguistic Death Penalty Innocence Project: Student Interns’ Analysis and Research on Language Used as Evidence in Criminal Trials Promotes Social Justice --Luna Filipović (University of East Anglia), Confession to Make: Confessing through Misunderstanding in Police Interviews -Chi-Hé Elder (University of East Anglia), Managing Misunderstandings in Police Interviews (Video)
15h30-16h	Conference Building (Building 36): Germán Bernácer

	Coffee break
16h15-17h15	CONFERENCE ROOM 1(Building 36): GERMÁN BERNÁCER Plenary Talk Prof. Dr. Janet Ainsworth (Seattle University) When lies do not count as false statements: The linguistically curious world of common-law defamation (Video)
17h30-18h15	CONFERENCE ROOM 1(Building 36): GERMÁN BERNÁCER Roundtable discussion The Current Status of Forensic Linguistics in the Courts of Justice Chair: Dieter Stein (Heinrich-Heine Universität) Participants: Janet Ainsworth (Seattle University), Eilika Fobbe (Forensic Institute of the Federal Criminal Police Office in Wiesbaden), Ms Cristina Sirvent Alonso, President of the Association of Young Lawyers (AJA)
18h15-18h30	CONFERENCE ROOM 1(Building 36): GERMÁN BERNÁCER Book announcement Language as Evidence: Doing Forensic Linguistics Victoria Guillén-Nieto &amp; Dieter Stein (Eds.) Palgrave Macmillan Closing

18h45

Guided tour to Santa Bárbara castle and welcome cocktail

(The conference bus leaves from the bus stop to Santa Bárbara castle at 19h)